Scorpio Partnership has been nominated for the prestigious Agency of the Year 2010 award by The Financial Services Forum.

Scorpio Partnership has been nominated for the prestigious Agency of the Year 2010 award by The Financial Services Forum. The nomination is a result of Scorpio Partnerships' ongoing focus on delivering innovative insights and business strategies across the wealth sector. The firm has developed its innovative SEEK, THINK, SHAPE and CREATE process to realise growth for clients by articulating what wealth needs next.

Previous winners of the Agency of the Year include Tamar, the search and social conversion agency. The nomination builds on Scorpio Partnerships previous accolades including three-time Management Consultancy of the Year to the wealth and private banking sector.
